

Breast Care

MULTIDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL FOR RESEARCH, DIAGNOSIS AND THERAPY

BREAST CARE is a peer-reviewed scientific journal that encompasses all aspects of breast biology. As an interdisciplinary journal, it includes manuscripts describing basic research, prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of both benign and malign diseases of the breast. In addition to presenting current developments in clinical research, it addresses broader topics in clinical practice by including articles that address legal, financial and economic issues of importance.
